

WHAT WINE IS WHAT - THESE ARE LISTED FROM SWEETEST TO DRIEST (White) LIGHTEST TO FULLEST (Red)

The same grape may be named differently depending on country of origin. These are the closest equivalents
 American (Domestic) wines are named for grape varieties - Imported wines are usually named for growing regions

WHITES

Domestic	Italian	Spanish	French	German	Chilean	Minnesota/WI	South Africa
Muscat			Muscadet
Chenin Blanc		White Riojas	Vouvray	Leibfraumilch		St Pepin	Steen
Viognier			Viognier	(Kabinett style)
Gewurtztraminer			Alsacian whites	Gewurtztraminer
Semillon			White Bourdeaux	(Spatlese style)
Pinot Grigio	Verdicchio		Pinot Gris	Auslese		Frontenac Gris
Reisling		Reisling	Reisling (also Rhine)			LaCrescent
Sauvignon Blanc aka Fume Blanc	Soave		Pouilley Fume	Piesporter
Chardonnay				Feinburgunder		LaCrosse

REDS

Domestic	Italian	Spanish	French	German	Chilean	Minnesota/WI	South Africa
Muscat
Gamay			Beaujolais
Pinot Noir	Pinot Nero		Burgundy	Spätburgunder.		Marechal Foch Marquette
Cabernet Franc					Carmenet
Lambrusco	Dolcetto
Sangiovese	Chianti
Merlot	Bardolino Barberra				Carmenère	St Croix
Syrah - Shiraz			Syrah Aka - Hermitage Cote-Rotie Cotes Du Rhone
Red Zinfandel	Valpolicella
Tempranillo		Rioja-Red
Nebbiolo	Barolo-Barbaresco	Tuscans
Cabernet Sauvignon	Super Tuscans Solaia	Barca Velha (Port) Duoro (Portugese)	Bordeaux			Frontenac	Pinotage
Grenache	Blended with Mourvèdre, & Cinsaut drinks like cab sauv
Petit Sirah	Closest to Merlot or Zinfandel						